

LAMINATE

customer pick up policy

- It is the customers responsibility to properly secure and tie down merchandise to the vehicle.
- Employees may assist in loading customer countertops but we reserve the right to refuse assistance where it may result in injuries and property damage.
- We will not be responsible for any damage or loss caused to customer merchandise and/or vehicles during the loading or transportation of the customer's countertops.
- Be sure to inspect your purchase for any visible signs of defect prior to departing Humboldt Countertops & Surfacing. We are not responsible for damage discovered after leaving our shop.